

BEWARE OF JOB RECRUITMENT SCAMS!

Online scammers keep looking for targets, and now, even job seekers can fall victims to their scams.

Criminals offer fake jobs by pretending to be recruiters. They use fraud recruitment pages (e.g., Facebook/website) to post employment opportunities and extract personal information and pre-employment documents. They also ask for fees to process a job application.

Sterling Bank of Asia only uses its official recruitment channels to publish employment opportunities or contact potential candidates. In addition, the Bank does not solicit fees as hiring consideration.
