Short Description

The Sterling $ Money Market Fund is a US Dollar denominated money market Unit Investment Trust Fund was launched last April 7, 2009, it is suited for professionals, corporations, high-salaried OFWs, and other individuals or corporations who are looking to invest over the short to medium-term. These are clients who intend to settle for return on investment that is higher than the regular traditional deposit products, and are aware that a higher return is accompanied by a higher level of risk. These clients are also willing to expose the funds to a certain level of risk thus can accept some near-term or temporary fluctuations in value of investments.

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve for its participants a steady stream of income by investing in a diversified portfolio of US dollar-denominated short term government securities e.g. ROP, fixed-income deposits, money market securities, and other highly marketable fixed-income instruments up to maximum tenor of five years but at an average maturity duration of one year or less.

The Fund aims to achieve a rate of return based on the applicable One-Year LIBOR Rate plus 0.25% to 1% (gross of fees).

Market Update & Outlook

The Philippine Peso was described as the best performer amongst the region's 10 most active currencies for the first quarter of 2012. These developments were brought about by the active participation of foreign funds in the country.

Also, these developments was a carry over from the negative news coming from the Euro-zone in light to the ongoing European Summit to address the current economic / debt crisis brought about by Spain, Italy and Greece.

Consumer confidence have remained optimistic on the local economy because on the effective implementation of the economic and monetary policies which is a factor in keeping the inflation on a manageable levels. The Philippine Peso remain healthy over the week having gained its momentum due to the expected growth of the GDP towards the end of the First quarter.

Investment Strategy

The Sterling $ Money Market Fund will remain invested in short term high yielding instruments as we wait for better opportunities to invest in medium to long-term bonds. We shall maintain proactive stance in investing.
