

Quarterly Investment Disclosure Statement - 31 March 2014

Net Asset Value, end of quarter : USD 12,377.22
 Net Asset Value Per Unit : USD 1.06121

Short Description

The Sterling $ Money Market Fund is a US Dollar denominated money market Unit Investment Trust Fund was launched last April 7, 2009, it is suited for professionals, corporations, high-salaried OFWs, and other individuals or corporations who are looking to invest over the short to medium-term. These are clients who intend to settle for return on investment that is higher than the regular traditional deposit products, and are aware that a higher return is accompanied by a higher level of risk. These clients are also willing to expose the funds to a certain level of risk thus can accept some near-term or temporary fluctuations in value of investments.

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve for its participants a steady stream of income by investing in a diversified portfolio of US dollar-denominated short term government securities e.g. ROP, fixed-income deposits, money market securities, and other highly marketable fixed-income instruments up to maximum tenor of five years but at an average maturity duration of one year or less.

The Fund aims to achieve a rate of return based on the applicable One-Year LIBOR Rate plus 0.25% to 1% (gross of fees).

Market Update and Outlook

Global markets move, mostly by the market players in anticipation to the results of the US Federal Reserve's policy meeting scheduled on the last week of March.

Tensions in eastern Europe and some economic developments in China has raised investor's concern which in turn would drive them to a much less volatile market.

Improvement on the US economy and some quarter end corporate window dressing would compensate for some issues related to China's anticipated economic slowdown

Investment Strategy

The Sterling $ Money Market Fund will remain invested in short term high yielding instruments as we wait for better opportunities to invest in medium to long-term bonds. We shall maintain proactive stance in investing.
