Short Description

The Sterling $ Money Market Fund is a US Dollar denominated money market Unit Investment Trust Fund was launched last April 7, 2009, it is suited for professionals, corporations, high-salaried OFWs, and other individuals or corporations who are looking to invest over the short to medium-term. These are clients who intend to settle for return on investment that is higher than the regular traditional deposit products, and are aware that a higher return is accompanied by a higher level of risk. These clients are also willing to expose the funds to a certain level of risk thus can accept some near-term or temporary fluctuations in value of investments.

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve for its participants a steady stream of income by investing in a diversified portfolio of US dollar-denominated short term government securities e.g. ROP, fixed-income deposits, money market securities, and other highly marketable fixed-income instruments up to maximum tenor of five years but at an average maturity duration of one year or less.

The Fund aims to achieve a rate of return based on the applicable One-Year LIBOR Rate plus 0.25% to 1% (gross of fees).

Market Update and Outlook

The Peso appreciated against the greenback along with other Asian currencies brought about by some positive regional economic news.

Positive sentiments remain due to the region's strong economic data. Leading on the positive growth data are China, Taiwan and South Korea.

However, tensions in the Middle East and Eastern Europe remain a concern since these could lead to some inflationary activities in the long run.

Investment Strategy

The Sterling $ Money Market Fund will remain invested in Time Certificate of Deposits while waiting for new opportunities in other short term high yielding instruments.
