

Quarterly Investment Disclosure Statement - 31 December 2013

Short Description

The Sterling $ Money Market Fund is a US Dollar denominated money market Unit Investment Trust Fund was launched last April 7, 2009, it is suited for professionals, corporations, high-salaried OFWs, and other individuals or corporations who are looking to invest over the short to medium-term. These are clients who intend to settle for return on investment that is higher than the regular traditional deposit products, and are aware that a higher return is accompanied by a higher level of risk. These clients are also willing to expose the funds to a certain level of risk thus can accept some near-term or temporary fluctuations in value of investments.

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve for its participants a steady stream of income by investing in a diversified portfolio of US dollar-denominated short term government securities e.g. ROP, fixed-income deposits, money market securities, and other highly marketable fixed-income instruments up to maximum tenor of five years but at an average maturity duration of one year or less.

The Fund aims to achieve a rate of return based on the applicable One-Year LIBOR Rate plus 0.25% to 1% (gross of fees).

Net Asset Value, end of quarter : USD 12,346.29
Net Asset Value Per Unit : USD 1.05856

Market Update and Outlook

The Philippine Peso weakened against the US Dollar as some foreign investors have seen some good investment opportunities in anticipation to the US Federal Reserve's tapering of its monthly bond purchases next month.

Dollar remittances has continue to increase since August and is expected to carry over towards the first few months of 2014, Said developments are brought about by the long holiday weekend season, a norm for OFW workers.

Investment Strategy

The Sterling $ Money Market Fund will remain invested in short term high yielding instruments as we wait for better opportunities to invest in medium to long-term bonds. We shall maintain proactive stance in investing.
